

EYES ON TRACK CLUE SHEET

Symptoms of Poor Eye Tracking Skills

Observe Student in the Classroom and Check Appropriate Box

Student's Name: _____ Date of Observations: _____

Performance Symptoms:

- Avoids near-point work
- Poor posture while reading
- Head tilting when reading or writing
- Holds book too close to eyes
- Homework requiring reading takes a long time
- Poor attention during work period
- Loses place when reading
- Uses a marker to keep place
- Moves head when reading
- Omits, re-reads words/letters
- Re-reads lines
- Repeats letters within words
- Reads big words, but misreads/misses smaller words (and, but, if...)
- Difficulty copying from chalkboard/loses place
- Avoids reading out loud
- Enjoys being read to/avoids self-reading
- Whispers to self for reinforcement when self-reading
- Poor reading comprehension
- Comprehension declines as reading continues
- Misaligns numbers in math
- Does not look directly into speaker's eyes
- EASILY DISTRACTED